GHP Horwath
Certified Public Accountants and Business Consultants

OUR FIRM

GHP Horwath, P.C. is one of Colorado's largest locally owned, independent public accounting firms. Their experienced professionals provide a wide range of services, including audit and accounting; personal, corporate, and estate tax planning; personal financial planning, such as investment advising, retirement and estate planning, asset allocation and insurance consulting; litigation support; and business valuations.

GHP Horwath is a member firm of Horwath International. Horwath's global network of more than 110 independent accounting and management consulting firms operate from 400 offices around the world. By aligning with Horwath International, the GHP Horwath staff maintains access to international resources and is able to provide pertinent information to clients who are seeking to expand into new markets or are coping with unfamiliar issues affected by local laws and customs.

CLIENTS

GHP Horwath's tax and accounting clients represent closely held businesses and their owners in the Colorado market. Their expertise has grown in several industries, including real estate, medical and professional practices, manufacturing, high technology, restaurants and hotels local and international. The firm currently performs audit work for approximately 25 publicly traded clients and clients in registration.
